Mr. Bently and Mr. Strutton of San Francisco were the inspirations for a very elaborate dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Tenney at their home on Lunalihi and Pensacola streets on Wednesday evening.

The large circular table in the handsome dining room was fragrant with deep red Jacqueminot roses, a large gold basket of these beauties gracing the center of the table on an exquisite Canton lace cloth.

The tall handle of the basket was adorned by a huge double bow of crimson liberty satin ribbon, whose long flowing ends fell along the cloth which formed a lacey bed for innumerable clipped blossoms and sprays of maiden hair.

Tall red shaded candelabra in silver stands and whose bases were banked with ferns and roses, shed a subdued warm light over the table, and gold monogrammed name cards completed the exquisite appointments.

Those present were Mr. Bently and Mr. Strutton of San Francisco, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Miss Agnes Walker, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney.

Mrs. Frederick Klamp entertained at a charming tea for four to six, Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harry Wilder, whither her neighborhood friends only were bidden to meet the young bride who has proved such an acquisition to local society.

The house was decorated with a profusion of palms and cut flowers red and white roses in brass bowls and jardinières supplying a touch of color.

Mrs. Klamp received her guests, assisted by Mrs. Harry Wilder, Mrs. Charles Wilder presiding over the tea cups and Mrs. Klebahn serving punch.

Among those present were: Mrs. Harry Wilder, Mrs. Klebahn, Mrs. Clinton G. Ballentyne, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. Frederick Damon, Mrs. E. M. Watson, Mrs. Arthur Marx, Mrs. C. B. Wood, Mrs. Henry Frederick Wichman, Princess Kawanakao, Mrs. Kate Voorhies Henry, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Payson, Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mrs. James A. Kennedy, Mrs. Emil Waterman, Mrs. William Wilder, Mrs. William R. Castle, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Irma Ballentyne, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Mrs. G. Murphy, Mrs. Campbell, Miss Dorothy Wood, Mrs. F. B. McStocker, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Julie McStocker.

An unusually interesting program of ten numbers was rendered last meeting of the "Morning Music Club" at "Craigslist" the beautiful home of Mrs. T. Clive Davies in Nuuanu valley at half after ten o'clock on Wednesday morning.

The program follows:

14. Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock
15. Miss Elsie Werthmuller

Invitations have been received by members of Olive Branch of the Rebekahs for an at home and elaborate banquet, to be given on the roof garden of Odd Fellows Hall next Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pierce Danzig who have been greatly entertained since their arrival in Honolulu are expecting to leave the islands for their home in San Francisco about the fifteenth of next month.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Pardee of Fort Shafter entertained at dinner last evening at their quarters at the post. Covers were arranged for eight.

The table was ablaze with clusters of American Beauty roses and maiden-hair, the name cards being water color creations.

After dinner the evening was spent at bridge. Mrs. Pardee's guests were Major and Mrs. Samuel W. Dunning of Fort Shafter, Captain and Mrs. Arthur Marx, and Captain and Mrs. W. H. Winters, 3rd Cavalry.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp entertained at a very jolly week end party at their beach home at Kahala on Sunday. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Klebahn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Messrs. William and J. McInerney, Sam and Hobie Walker and George Fuller.

Lieutenant Salm of the U. S. Light house tender Kukul will entertain this evening at dinner in honor of Captain and Mrs. W. C. Cowles.

Mrs. Frank E. Richardson entertained seven tables of bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on Thurston avenue.

Luxuriant house palms and overgrown pots of maidenhair adorned the first and second drawing rooms where the rubbers of the fascinating games were played. The first prize—a book of fancy needlework designs was captured by Mrs. Emil Waterman, while Mrs. Armin Haneberg won the second prize, a handsome brass photograph frame.

The consolation fell to Mrs. Giffard in the form of a memorandum book.

Delicious light refreshments of coffee, ices, cake and fruit punch were served at the conclusion of cards.

Those present included Mrs. Giffard, Mrs. Emil Waterman, Mrs. Jas. Dougherty, Mrs. M. E. Grossman, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Shepherd Jr., Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Becker of San Francisco, Mrs. F. B. McStocker, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Julie McStocker, Mrs. Armin Haneberg, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mrs. J. M. Oat, Mrs. Annie Phillips, Mrs. Joseph Schwartz, Mrs. Peck, Miss Peck Mrs. J. Morton Riggs, Mrs. J. F. C. Hagens, Mrs. C. B. Wood, Mrs. Frederick Damon, Mrs. L. M. Whitehouse, Mrs. Ormond Wall, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Arthur Davidson and Mrs. George Angus.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Marx entertained at a very charming dinner party at their home in Nuuanu valley on Saturday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robbins Anderson.

The decorations of the large circular dinner table were evolved from tones of golden yellow a huge centerpiece of golden cosmos and dainty maiden-hair resting on a frail lace cloth.

Blossoms and sprays of the fern were dropped here and there over the pretty table and the place cards were hand painted in a design of yellow wreaths.

Those present on this delightful occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Robbins Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Von Holt, Miss Ethelwyn Castle and Mr. J. R. Galt.

Mrs. Pershing, wife of Brigadier-General Pershing, U. S. A., was a through passenger in the transport Sherman en route to the Philippines.

One of the most enjoyable evenings ever given by the Literary Circle of the Kihohana Art League was that of Thursday evening, when to an audience of one hundred and seventy-five guests who had been invited, three interesting papers were read.

The reading of Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird," which is even now causing a furor in Europe was read with a clever understanding and sympathy by Mrs. P. L. Weaver, whose reputation for clever readings has long since been established.

Miss Anna Tucker displayed real talent in her handling of her subject. "Justice" by Galsworthy is a deep and wonderful theme, and Miss Tucker deserves great praise for her charming rendition of this classic masterpiece.

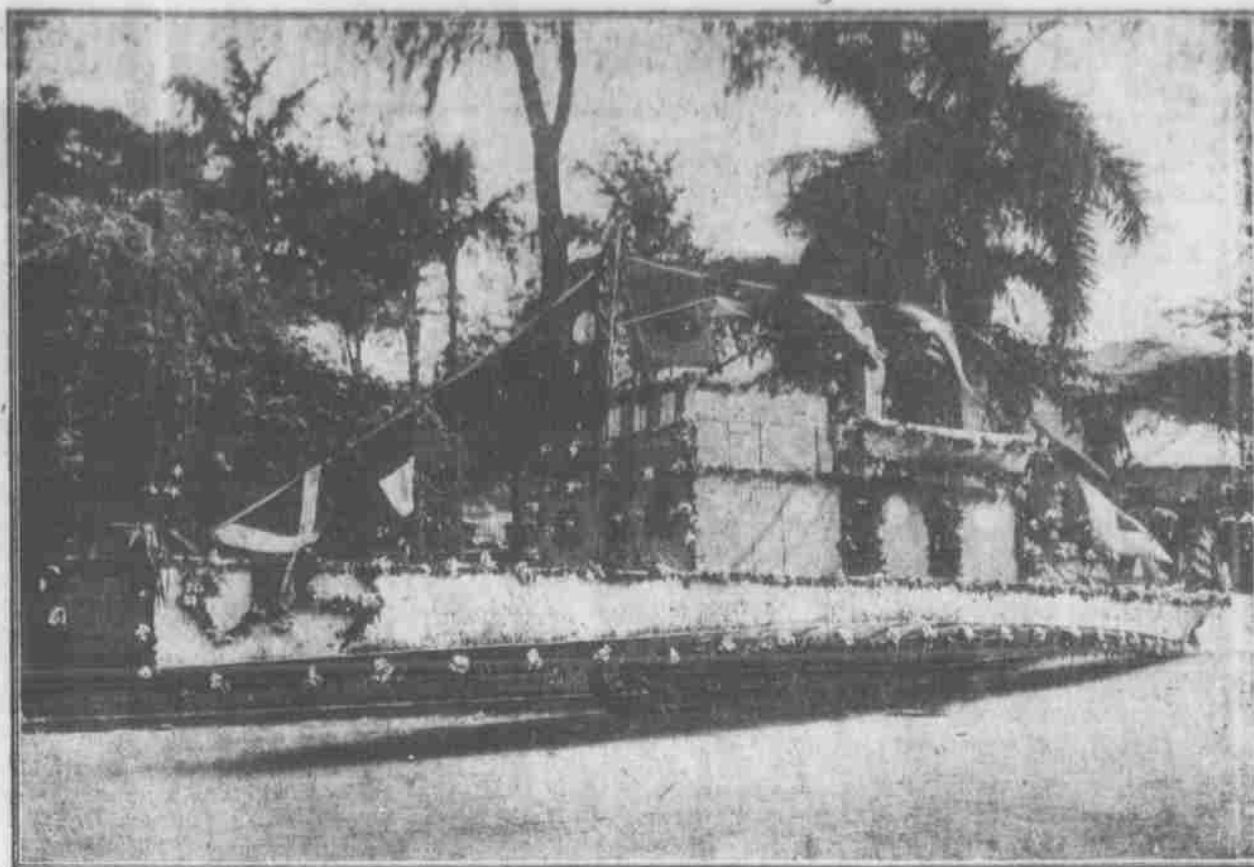

Dr. Seresole, the new French instructor of the College of Hawaii won his audience from the first and his interpretation of Rostand's "Chanticleer" was tempered by continual mirth and punctuated throughout by bursts of laughter.

The evening from an artistic and meritorious viewpoint was one which will be recorded in the annals of the Art League opposite the word "success" and will be long treasured as a real literary and intellectual treat by all who attended.

The decoration of the league hall was simple but effective, palms and terra-cotta Bougainvillea adorning the alcove stage.

During the intermissions between numbers some very delightful music was enjoyed, vocal solos being rendered by Mrs. Cochran, wife of Captain Cochran of the U. S. Revenue cutter Thetis, accompanied by Miss Catherine Reynolds and violin selections being given by Mrs. Ernest Ross, who was accompanied by Mrs. Frank C. Atherton.

Among the large number of guests present were noticed Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Von Holt, Mrs. Sarah Newcomb, Mr. Edgar Newcomb, Miss Kulamann Ward, Miss

Annie Ward, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gurrey, Prof. and Mrs. A. B. Ingalls, Prof. and Mrs. J. N. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Miss Beatrice Castle, Mr. Frank Damon, Miss Vera Damon, Miss Lawrence, Miss Ermine Cross, Miss Erhorn, Mr. Erhorn Mrs. Pierre Jones, Mrs. Thomas Church, Mr. and Mrs. Gignoux, Mrs. Pascoe, Miss Stevens, Sister Beatrice, Mrs. Earl, Mrs. Lawrence, Miss Allyn, Miss Sprinks and many others.

"Pualelani" the beautiful Waikiki home of Princess Kalaniana'ole was the setting for three tables of bridge on Wednesday afternoon, when a club of intimate friends which has been in existence for some time met again at the home of this charming and gracious hostess.

The members of the club record their scores and at the termination of every third month, handsome prizes are awarded.

The twelve members of the club enjoyed a delightful afternoon on Wednesday at this picturesque spot, and delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of several tubbers of bridge.

IMPORTANT POINT RAISED

A very interesting point of law was raised in the police court yesterday by Attorney Claudius McBride, a point which Judge W. B. Lymer was inclined to concede as correct but which he characterized as a public calamity if his view of the law were sound. The case in which the point was taken was that against Antone Richards, who is charged with having stolen certain quantities of milk from James Love & Co. and A. H. Jungclaus. There were three charges against Richards and in each of them McBride, appearing for the defense, demanded a jury trial and also demanded a preliminary examination.

Attorney Frank Andrade appeared to assist the prosecution and was surprised at the application, remarking that he objected to the motion for both examination and jury trial. Counsel for the defendant could demand a trial by jury, which would oust the police court of jurisdiction and the court would then commit the defendant to be tried by the Circuit court, or counsel could ask for an examination, but he could not demand a trial by jury and at the same time ask for an examination in the police court.

Judge Lymer—I understand he can, but I will refresh my mind by looking up the statute.

Andrade—I have no knowledge of that; I am not aware that there is any authority for demanding a jury trial in this court, thus ousting this court of jurisdiction, and at the same time asking this court to give him a hearing.

City and County Attorney Cathcart announced that his office was somewhat concerned in any decision the court might make, and asked whether the court was inclined to consider the contention of defendant's counsel that the city and county attorney's office be given an opportunity to go into the matter.

Judge Lymer—I consider it a public calamity if Mr. McBride is right; my first impression is that he is right. It depends on section 1664 and I should like to hear both sides on the proposition.

Cathcart remarked that there would be no sense in trying a case twice or three times.

McBride stated that he would rely on the court's ruling in the Hee Fat case. As he had placed reliance on his honor's ruling he did not come into court prepared to argue the question at the moment.

Judge Lymer pointed out that his rulings in the Hee Fat case were tentative and not necessarily passed on by the court.

McBride—Mr. Peters informed me that he had demanded a jury trial and Andrade was judge of this court.

Andrade—There were many instances of this in misdemeanor cases but not in felonies.

After some little discussion it was decided to argue the point on January 18, Judge Lymer adding that if it were legal for him to hold that the procedure suggested by Mr. McBride could not be followed it would facilitate the course of procedure in the court very much indeed.

REBEKAHS INSTALLED.

Pacific Rebekah Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., held its regular meeting Thursday evening. Brother Lester Petrie, D. D. G. S., assisted by Sisters Annie Bidingar, grand marshal; Clara Petrie, grand warden; Hannah Smith, grand secretary; Almie Bicknell; grand treasurer; Sister Eliza Betts, warden; Sister Nettie Noyes, conductor; Sister Clara Petrie, P. D. D. G. S., R. S. N. G.; Sister Bertha Smith, L. S. N. G.; Sister Charlotte Wicko, P. N. G., R. S. V. G.; Sister Almie Bicknell, P. N. G., L. S. V. G.; Sister Maud Cottrell, inside guardian; Brother M. Tschudi, P. G., outside guardian; Sister Helen Finney, pianist.

The retiring noble grand was presented with a jewel and a beautiful basket of roses. The hall was artistically decorated with ferns and roses and a sumptuous repast followed the ceremonies.

Governor Frear is busy just now drawing up an agreement that will suit the altered conditions of the Kapaa leases, in regard to the supply of water.

Exclusive Features of Our REGAL OXFORDS

Heel Hug—Regal Oxfords fit snugly at the heel—never chafe or cut—because they are made on special Oxford lasts.

Ankle Fit—Regal Oxfords fit smoothly and evenly around the ankle, whereas ordinary low-cuts, made on high-shoe lasts, sag and gape at the ankle.

Custom Instep—The patented, two-part REGAL FORM Lasts, on which Regal Shoes are made, are removed from the finished Regal Shoes in sections. This permits the instep or "waist" of the shoes to be made small and snug.

Quarter-sizes—In addition to the usual half and full sizes, Regals come in one-quarter and three-quarter sizes in between. This double number of fittings insures an exact fit for every foot.

Custom Styles—Regal Oxfords reproduce the latest, correct custom styles, not found in other ready-to-wear shoes until the following season.

And yet our Regals cost you no more than ordinary shoes!
